II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

☐Federal officials (a Bivens claim)☒

State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)

B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the "deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws]." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

Civil Rights Act, section 1 of 14th Amendment, and First Amendment

C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

- D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

Acting as a state official, as my probation officer, the defendant violated Florida state laws 934.425 and 948-11

III. Statement of Claim

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

The defendant's former office, at 423 Fern street

- B. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

June 5th, 2023

- C. What are the facts underlying your claim(s)? (For example: What happened to you? Who did what? Was anyone else involved? Who else saw what happened?)

The defendant placed an ankle monitor on me without having a court order, and she said I will have to pay for it. She threatened to place me under arrest if I did not sign the papers. She also told me that I am not allowed to use the internet which prevents me from searching for jobs and checking my bank account/having a retirement account. Please help. I have no conditions that ~~prohibit~~ prohibit internet use, its a 1st amendment violation.

IV. Injuries

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive.

V. Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims.

I want the court to remove the device and waive any accrued expenses associated with it. I am asking $75,000 Punitive damages, I am being tracked illegally. The company that is tracking me has made harassing phone calls to me in the middle of the night and I have mental health issues. Emotional distress. Also, the defendant wants to charge me over $6,000 total for the device. Without internet I can't check my bank account efficiently, or apply for jobs...
